One Part History, Two Parts Haunt!

Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour of Historic Philadelphia Stirs Up the Past

While Philadelphia is one of America's most historic cities, legend has it that Philadelphia is also one of country's the most haunted cities.

Developed by The Constitutional Walking Tour, Philadelphia's leading walking tour operator, the new Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour of Philadelphia features many spooky sites and stories. Along the Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour, visitors will dare to visit more than 15 of "Philly's Frights & Sights" on a ghoulish 75 minute outdoor walking adventure!

Hear stories about the Master of the Macabre, Edgar Allan Poe, who used to reside in Philadelphia and Leo Callahan, the only prisoner to escape from Eastern State Penitentiary and never be captured!

On the Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour, visitors will learn about the legendary ghosts that inhabit Independence Hall, the spirits of Carpenters' Hall, the dancing statue of Benjamin Franklin at Library Hall, paranormal Pine Street happenings and more.

Experience Philadelphia's monuments by moonlight. Travel the cobblestone streets of Old City to hear chilling stories about the Spirits of '76.

Captured on a summer evening in 2007, this photo seems to show an "orb." Could this indicate the presence of a ghost? Dare to see for yourself on the new Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour.

Independence Hall and its legendary ghosts are one of the terrifying tales told on the new Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour of Philadelphia.

The Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour is the best way to explore Haunted Philadelphia, taking you behind the scenes to the places where other tours dare not venture. Get up close with a "High-Definition Haunted Experience."<sup>TM</sup>

"People are "dying" to take the new Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour since it is such a great way to experience Haunted Philadelphia. Along the tour, guests will hear the spellbinding stories and terrifying tales of the supernatural," stated Jonathan Bari, founder of The Constitutional Walking Tour and the Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour. "It's one thing to see Philadelphia's historic sites by day, but it's a different experience to see them by night and learn about their haunted side when we show you more than 15 of Philly's Frights & Sights."

Group tours can be arranged year round with advance reservations and can be scheduled during the evening or daytime hours. Student group rates are available for parties of 25 or more.

Call the Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour at 215.525.1776 or email us at info@SpiritsOf76.com to arrange a Private or Group tour. Plus, combination daytime and nighttime tours can be arranged with The Constitutional Walking Tour of Philadelphia, which provides a primary overview to the Independence National Historical Park area including more than 20 historical sites such as the Liberty Bell, Independence Hall, Betsy Ross House and more.
